

Did about Christmas last run away from her husband Thomas Watson as this deponent understand with one John Beauloy who this deponent sees at Mr Ballard, And this deponent further saith that he knowes the said Thomas Watson very well and did see him in Reales about a fortnight or three weeks since and did then tell this deponent that his wife was run away with one John Beauloy and he knew not which way was gone
And also further saith that he did know both Thomas Watson and this Elizabeth his wife and that they owned one another as man and wife and to his knowledge lived together as man and wife

This deposition taken John Beauloy and Elizabeth Watson being present
The 7th March 1673
Sworne before Mr Stevens
Charles Ballard

John Holt

The Petty Jury of twelve having agreed on their verdict being called over every man answering to his name George Bett deliver'd the same in manner and form following which is read: viz

To the w^{or}ship^{ful} Court

That of the Jury doe finde John Chansellor and Abigail Arrington guilty of Fornication and also John Beauloy
And Elizabeth Watson the man guilty of Fornication
And the woman adulterij

Signed by their foreman George Bett

The Court thereupon orderd as followeth viz