C H A P. VII.

Passed 19th of Dec. 1800.

An ACT to extend the powers of the trustees of the poor of Caroline county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS William Cahall, of Caroline county, father of the herein after named children, by his petition to this general assembly hath set forth, that he is advanced to the age of fifty-nine years, and his wife to the age of sixty-five; that they have had the misfortune to have four helpless children, neither of which have ever been able to dress or undress, or even feed themselves, being perfectly insane from their infancy; that the eldest is a male, by the name of Solomon Cahall, now thirty years of age, the two next eldest are females and twins, by the names of Sarah Cahall and Mary Cahall, now aged twenty-eight years, the fourth is also a female, named Aimey Cahall, now aged twenty-six years; that while himself and wife enjoyed youthful health and strength, they supported these their unfortunate children by their labour and industry, but being now grown old, and their health and strength much impaired, they are not able to support their helpless children as heretofore, and having an aversion to putting their children into the poor-house, on account of their peculiar situation, where they would be deprived of the care and tenderness of their father and mother, he prayed an act might pass to provide for their future support out of the poor-house; and the facts stated in said petition being authenticated by the signature of a number of respectable inhabitants of said county; therefore,
