

visors or a member thereof, when the said judges or clerks are sworn in.

“The commissions in the counties shall be sent by the Board of Supervisors of Elections to each polling place in charge of the primary election inspector, who shall deliver the said commission to each judge and clerk upon receiving from the said judge or clerk his oath of office properly taken and certified as aforesaid, and not before.

“Each judge of a primary election shall have all authority conferred upon a judge of a general election by section 55 of this Article.

“161. The respective Board of Supervisors of elections shall cause to be printed all ballots to be used at primary elections in the various counties and in the city of Baltimore. All ballots which the said Supervisors of Elections shall cause to be printed shall be precisely uniform in size and color, and in the character, quality and weight of paper, so that it shall be impossible to distinguish any ballot to be used at any particular primary election from any other ballot to be used at the said election when it is folded with the face of said ballot inside.

“Anyone desiring to have ballots printed shall file a request for the printing of such ballots with the board of supervisors of elections not later than forty-eight hours preceding the time fixed for the opening of the polls for the primary election at which such ballots shall be used, such requests shall be signed by some registered voter or voters of the city, district, ward, precinct or county in which the ballots are to be used. Such requests shall state the number of ballots desired, and shall contain or be accompanied by a description, copy or representation of the ballot, the printing of which is requested. Such ballot may contain in addition to the names of candidates at such primary elections and the positions for which they are candidates, the name of the party holding the said primary election and the date of such primary election, and the location of one or more of the polling places for such primary election, such ballot may also contain a designation of the principal issue or faction represented by the candidates upon it. Such designation to be composed of not more than five words, and such ballot may bear upon it an emblem or device, provided that such
