

Persons making proposals are referred to the aforesaid Article 78 of said Code of Public General Laws for more specific information as to what will be required of bidders, and the manner in which the work shall be done and paid for.

Parties desiring to bid for the printing can obtain a blank form of bond by applying to the undersigned.

Bidders will endorse on the back of the envelope "Proposals for State Printing."

ALLAN RUTHERFORD,

Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland.

At the hour designated in the foregoing advertisement, on the said 26th day of September, 1899, I had received ten sealed proposals for the aforesaid printing, each being accompanied by a good and sufficient bond for thirty thousand dollars, as prescribed in the said advertisement, at which said hour, on the day aforesaid, I proceeded to open said bids in the presence of the bidders or their agents, and of such of the public as chose to attend; and it appearing that William J. C. Dulaney Company, of the city of Baltimore, were the lowest responsible bidders, I thereupon awarded to them the contract for said printing at the price set out in their bid, to wit: The sum of twenty-eight thousand dollars ($28,000.)

I then entered into the following contract with the said William J. C. Dulaney Company, which contract and the bond and bid of the said William J. C. Dulaney Company are filed and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland.

CONTRACT FOR STATE PRINTING.

Articles of agreement, made and concluded this twenty-sixth day of September, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, by and between Allan Rutherford, Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, of the first part, and William J. C. Dulaney Company, of Baltimore, a body corporate of the State of Maryland, of the second part, witnesseth, that:

Whereas, The said party of the second part has transmitted to the party of the first part a bid for the printing required to be done for the General Assembly of Maryland, at its next ensuing session in pursuance of the provisions of Article 78, of the Code of Public Gen-
