

street numbers at which the business is to be conducted.

54 E. The license fees shall be as provided by existing laws for any one class or group contained in this Act, for the first one thousand dollars stock and ten dollars for every additional thousand dollars, except where such class or group includes the sale of alcoholic, spirituous or fermented liquors, when the license shall be as now provided and under the terms, provisions, regulations and conditions of existing laws. Five hundred dollars for every class or group or for any particular article of any class or group mentioned in the application for such license, being in addition to the class or group in the application mentioned as the principal business of the applicant and said license fee shall be uniform in each city in which it is collected."

54 F. Any person or persons, firm or corporation, or association of persons violating any of the provisions hereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding one year, or by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or by both such fine or imprisonment, and each and every day that a violation of this Act shall continue shall constitute a new and additional offense, in the case of a violation hereof by a corporation, the president or managing officer of said corporation may be prosecuted thereof as in the case of a private individual.

54 G. This Act shall not apply to manufacturing establishments, warehouses or auction houses, or to any establishment where not more than ten persons are employed.

Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of the proprietor or manager of every store at the request of the board or officer authorized to issue the license required by this Act to furnish such board or officer with a statement in writing under oath, setting forth the different classes of goods wares and merchandise which is kept and had for sale in such store.

Sec. 10. All Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.