CHAPTER 687.

AN ACT to add two new sections to be designated as 157A and 157B to the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Allegany County," sub-title "Frostburg."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That two new sections be added to Article 1 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Allegany County," sub-title "Frostburg," to be designated as Sections 157A and 157B, to read as follows:

Bailiff or police shall not enter saloons without cause.

Sec. 157A. That it shall be unlawful for the bailiff, night police, or any one acting for or as a special police, to enter any saloon while on duty unless he shall hear noises or disturbances in any saloon in said town of Frostburg, then it shall be his duty to enter the place and arrest all concerned in riotous conduct, and have dealt with according to law.

Penalty for violation.

Sec. 157B. Any officer violating the foregoing section shall be fined by the Mayor five dollars, and for second offense may be dismissed from office, and his place filled by the Mayor and Councilmen for the remainder of his term; if he should deny the charges he shall be given a trial before the Mayor and Councilmen, and their verdict shall be final, it taking five votes to render a verdict; any fine that shall be imposed may be deducted from the salary of the officers so offending or collected as other fines are collected.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 10, 1900.
