

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CAPTER 218.

AN ACT to license Traders in Baltimore County.

Balto. County.
Trader's
license. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no person or resident conducting business in Baltimore County shall sell any goods or merchandise whatever in Baltimore County, unless he shall first take out the license now prescribed by law, and no person not residing in Baltimore, Carroll, Howard, Anne Arundel and Harford Counties, and not paying said license, whether a dealer, merchant, storekeeper, huckster or trader, selling or offering for sale any merchandise, except fish, fruits and vegetables, except to dealers, shall be permitted to sell any goods or merchandise from wagons in said county, without having first obtained a license therefor from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, and having paid therefor the sum of fifty dollars to the clerk of the said court, License fee. said license being for the term of one year, from May the first of each and every year, and said license fee to go to the Treasurer of Baltimore County for the improvement of the public roads of said county.

Penalty for violation. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any person selling from wagons, as referred to in this Act, or soliciting or drumming for sale of any of the articles referred to in said section in this Act, without having previously obtained said license, shall be liable to a fine of fifty dollars for each and every violation of this Act, for which he shall be convicted; the one-half of said fine to go to the informer, and the other half to the support of the public schools of Baltimore County; provided, that no grower or producer of any goods or merchandise referred to and included in this Act shall be required to take out said license.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect on May 1, 1900.

Approved April 5, 1900.

CHAPTER 219.

New Market. AN ACT to prohibit the granting of license for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquor or lager beer in the village of New Market (Maryland Line P. O.), in the first precinct of the Seventh election district in Baltimore County, Maryland, or at any place within said Baltimore County, within a radius of one mile of the Methodist Protestant Church in said village of New Market.