CHAPTER 286.

AN ACT to repeal Section two hundred and one of the Public Local Laws, Article 20, title "Somerset County," sub-title "Princess Anne," as amended by Section two hundred and one of Chapter five hundred and forty-three of the laws of Maryland, passed by the General Assembly of Maryland at the January Session, of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-four, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

Princess Anne.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section two hundred and one of the Public Local Laws, Article 20, title "Somerset County," sub-title "Princess Anne," as amended by Section two hundred and one, of Chapter five hundred and forty-three, of the laws of Maryland, passed by the General Assembly of Maryland at the January Session of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-four, be amended, and to read as follows:

Defining
town.

Section 201. The limits of the town of Princess Anne shall be as follows: Beginning at a point two hundred and twenty (220) feet distant from the westerly side of Green street, or Beckford avenue, at the middle of the ditch, between the lands of Hon. Fillmore Lankford and Henry L. D. Stanford, thence running by and with the middle of said ditch south 75° 40', west, to the point where this line intersects the tenth line, mentioned in the return made by Leven Handy Littleton Long, Sr., and Nathaniel Dixon, Jr., by virtue of a commission to them directed from the County Commissioners of Somerset County, which said commission and return are recorded in Liber L. W., No. 7, folios 506, 507 and 508, one of the record books of said county; thence by and with the said tenth, eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth lines mentioned in said return; thence by and with the fourteenth line, mentioned in said returns, to Manokin River; thence by and with the northward and westward sides of said stream to the west side of Bombay Hook Bridge; thence by and with the south side of
