

eight, Chapter three hundred and twenty-three, for the support of sundry schools and charitable institutions in this State, as the same was in fact passed by the General Assembly, there was appropriated for the Hospital for the Women of Maryland for each of the two fiscal years ending on the 30th day of September, 1899, and on the 30th day of September, 1900, respectively, the sum of four thousand dollars, as will appear by reference to the Senate Journal, page 1606, and the Journal of the House of Delegates, pages 1669 and 1670, and by the engrossed bill as the same was passed; and

WHEREAS, By clerical error in transcribing said bill for the Governor the sum appropriated was mistakenly stated to be three thousand dollars for each of said two years instead of four thousand, as the said bill so presented to the Governor should have recited; and

WHEREAS, His Excellency, the Governor, approved the said bill as presented to him containing said clerical error, in consequence whereof the Comptroller and Treasurer declined to pay the said sum of four thousand dollars to the said Hospital for the Women of Maryland for each of said years, but paid only the sum of three thousand dollars, and

WHEREAS, It is proper that the said error shall be corrected and the said Hospital for the Women of Maryland shall receive the sum actually appropriated for it by said Act of the General Assembly of eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, Chapter three hundred and twenty-three, as the same was in fact passed. Now, therefore,
