

contracts, deeds or muniments of title, or any other article or thing whatsoever, and to advance money thereupon on such terms and conditions as may be established or approved by said corporation; and it may be lawful for any court of this State or for any United States Court into which money, stocks, bonds or other property may be paid or deposited by agreement of parties, order, judgment or decree of such courts, to order and direct the same to be deposited with said corporation; and any executor or administrator or other trustee or receiver, agent or other public officer having control of any bonds, stocks, securities, moneys or other valuables belonging to others shall be and is hereby authorized to deposit the same with said corporation; and in all cases in which public officers or municipal or private corporations may be authorized to deposit money, stocks, bonds or evidences of indebtedness, such deposits by such officers or corporations may be made with said corporation; and in case of the dissolution of said corporation the debts due from the same as depository of funds under the order of any court or courts shall be preferred in the distribution of the assets of said corporation; and for the complete preservation of all articles or things so deposited for safe-keeping, the said corporation may construct, erect, purchase or lease such suitable buildings and all other means which may be or become necessary, and to maintain or let for hire vaults, safes and receptacles.

In case of dissolution of said corporation.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 12, 1900.

CHAPTER 600.

AN ACT to refund to Abraham Corbett, of Washington County, a sum of money erroneously paid by him into the Treasury of the State.

WHEREAS, Abraham Corbett, of Washington County, erroneously paid to the several collectors of State taxes of said county, the sum of seventy-four dollars and forty six cents ($74.46) for the years 1878, 1879, 1880, 1881, 1882, 1883, 1884, 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1890, 1891, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895, the proportion of the county taxes on the same assessment for the years mentioned has been asked to be refunded to him by giving authority to the County Commissioners of Washington County to refund the same.

Washington County.