

Remaining names shall constitute petit jury.

grand jury, and the remaining twenty-five names shall constitute the petit jury for said term of court; provided, however, that the foreman shall constitute and be counted as one in the apportionment for the election district in which he shall reside, it being the meaning of this Act that the grand jury and the petit jury shall be divided as equally as may be between the election districts of said county, and as soon as the grand and petit juries shall be drawn, the remaining one hundred and two names shall be, respectively, returned to their several drawers or compartments for future use in drawing jurors for said term of court.

How vacancies shall be filled.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That whenever a vacancy shall occur in the position of foreman of the grand jury, either temporary or permanent, by death, absence, sickness or any other cause, the court shall have power to appoint some other member of the grand jury foreman, as often as the necessity for such appointment shall occur. If for any reason any person or persons drawn as a grand juror or grand jurors shall fail to attend and be present at the conclusion of the drawing, or be disqualified, or be excused for cause, the court shall forthwith proceed to fill such vacancy or vacancies from the aforesaid remaining number of twenty-five names of those who are present in the order in which said names were drawn from the election district or districts, corresponding with those from which such vacancy may be created, as above, and may thereupon in its discretion fill such vacancy or vacancies thus made in the petit jury by drawing the necessary number of additional names in the manner prescribed in this Act from the district wherein such vacancy or vacancies may exist.

Power to compel attendance.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the judge or judges of said court shall have the same power to compel attendance of jurors, and shall proceed in all other matters not provided for in this Act, as under the general law relating to jurors.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect on and after the first day of July, 1900.

Approved April 10, 1900.

CHAPTER 619.

AN ACT to repeal Sections 31, 32, 33, 36, 37, 42, 44, 45, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 67, 68 and 82, of Article 81, of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Revenue and Taxes," so far as the same relate to Talbot County, and to
