

On Mr. Dorsey's several amendments,	863, 864	On the order of Mr. Bowie for compensation to William Hall for extra services,	869
On laying on the table the order of Mr. McHenry, concerning mileage to the Officers of the Convention,	864	On Mr. Dorsey's motion to suspend the rule,	870
On the indefinite postponement of the said order,	865	On laying on the table Mr. John Newcomer's motion to re-consider the vote granting extra compensation to Samuel Peacock,	871
On postponing indefinitely the Report on Free Colored Population,	865	On postponing the consideration of the said motion,	871
On laying on the table the order of Mr. Sprigg, respecting compensation to certain officers of the Convention for extra services,	865	On postponing the consideration of the order of Mr. Bowie concerning extra compensation to Wm. Hall,	871
On postponing until the 1st day of August the consideration of the Report on Free Colored Population,	865	On seconding the Previous Question,	872
On the substitute order of Mr. Thomas concerning the signature and publication of the new Constitution,	866	On laying on the table the order of Mr. McCubbin relating to extra compensation to certain officers of the Convention,	874
On the order of Mr. Johnson as thus amended,	866	On laying on the table the order concerning the per diem of the President of the Convention,	874
On laying on the table the order of Mr. Morgan for compensation to George S. King for extra services,	866	On the adoption of the said order,	875
On the adoption of the said order,	867	On the adoption of Mr. Ridgely's order concerning mileage to certain officers of the convention,	875
On taking a recess,	867	On the twenty-eighth section of the Judiciary Report, as amended by the Revisory Committee,	876
On Mr. Spencer's amendment to Mr. Constable's order concerning compensation to Samuel Peacock for extra services,	867	On seconding the previous question,	882
On laying the said order on the table,	867	On the adoption of Mr. Howard's order concerning the engrossed copy of the amended Constitution,	882
On the adoption of the said order,	868	On adjournment,	883
On laying on the table Mr. Bowie's order, with the several amendments thereto pending, concerning compensation to certain officers of the Convention for extra services,	868	On adjournment,	889
		On the motion of Mr. Howard that the engrossed constitution be signed by the President of the convention, and attested by the Secretary thereof,	890

CORRECTIONS

RECEIVED TOO LATE TO BE NOTICED IN THE REGULAR PLACE.

On page 108 of the Register, (quarto edition,) in the following remark of Mr. Thomas—"Our Superior Court, especially, ought to be so organized as to establish for one party an abuse of which many members of another party had experienced the advantages," the word "not" was omitted before the words "to be so organized," thus perverting the meaning of Mr. Thomas.

In the same page, in the sentence, "The organization of a Court with but one class of politicians on the bench, had a tendency to foster and encourage practicing lawyers with reference altogether to their legal knowledge," the word "with" before the word "reference" ought to be "without."

And on the same page, in the sentence, "The Report from the Committee on the Judiciary that proposed to abolish the revenue of the Orphans' Courts," the words "the revenue of" were introduced out of place.