

1 to, not rise, but continue standing to a question of personal
2 privilege and announce to you that this is the tenth wedding
3 anniversary of the Secretary of the Convention, Mr. Robert 4 Martineau and his wife, and I ask you to join me in extending 5 to him very hearty congratulations. He is standing in the 6 back of the room. (Applause)

7 THE PRESIDENT: For what purpose does Delegate
8 Case arise?

9 DELEGATE CASE: A point of parliamentary inquiry,
10 Mr. President.

11 THE PRESIDENT: State the inquiry.

12 DELEGATE CASE: At the appropriate time I should 13 like to move that Section 7.04 be returned to the Committee on 14 Style for the purpose of taking into consideration the 15 somewhat lengthy colloquy that you, the Chairman, Delegate
16 Sherbow and I had with respect to that matter earlier today
17 so that the question can be presented squarely as to whether 18 or not the taxing powers should be left at this point, whether 19 they would be in a separate section dealing with taxation, and 20 so on.

21 The question that I wish to direct to your attention
