

1 the Constitution. This is not just a proposal adopted
2 by the Convention, but a proposal for changing the Constitu-
3 tion, which is not in fact an amendment to the Constitution.

4 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Boyer.

5 DELEGATE BOYER: One thing that comes to my
6 mind, I believe it is Resolution 17, introduced by Delegate
7 Wheatley, which calls for the submission to the voters of 8 the present Constitution we are working on in a severable
9 part. What force and effect a resolution has more than an
10 amendment that we might proposed in this Convention, I am
11 not at liberty to tell you; but this is one example that
12 comes to my mind of a resolution that might have the force
13 of an amendment, but yet it is not technically an amendment.

14 DELEGATE JAMES: I am afraid Delegate Boyer has
15 run out of time, Delegate Marion.

16 Is there any further discussion?

17 The question arises upon the adoption of Amend-
18 ment No. 2, offered by Delegates Needle and Winslow.

19 The clerk will record the vote.

20 For what purpose does Delegate Boileau rise?

21 DELEGATE BOILEAU: May I be recorded as voting
