

1 in the new Constitutional language a man can be elected
2 to an office which was created during his term, or the
3 salary of which was raised during his term, that is fine.
4 He simply can't be appointed.

5 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Case.

6 DELEGATE CASE: Would Delegate Gallagher yield
7 for a question?

8 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher?

9 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Yes.

10 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Case.

11 DELEGATE CASE: Delegate Gallagery, so that I
12 can clearly understand the intent of your committee let
13 me put this hypotheitcal situation to you:

14 Suppose Mr. X is elected to the House of Delegates
15 and after one year of service for reasons best known to him
16 he resigns. Then three years later, or at the end of 17 that term while he is back in private employment the 18 General Assembly creates an office. Is it the intention of 19 your committee to preclude that particular resigned dele-
20 gate from being able to be appointed to that particular
21 office?
