

1 to get away from the fact we are representing counties
2 but are representing people. That does take some time.
3 It has not yet been received in the rural counties.

4 It might very well be that if this kind of
5 amendment were adopted in the Constitution, it would not
6 have the shock as Delegate Weidemeyer mentioned a while ago,
7 it would not have the alienation, the feeling they are
8 going to have that they no longer will be represented
9 in the General Assembly.

10 You can talk all the logic you want, but the fact
11 remains that it is how the people feel.

12 I hope that we can consider that when we vote.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other delegate desire to speak
14 against the amendment?

15 Delegate Beatrice Miller.

16 DELEGATE B. MILLER: Mr. Chairman, I wish that 17 Delegate Gilchrist who opened his remarks and spoke, I would 18 have hoped it would be offered in the committee, but at 19 no time in the committee deliberation was the ratio of 20 four to one introduced, nor was it ever considered by us.
21 I would also point out that this compromise or this
