3 grow, it will be impossible for a judge to take out 4 two or three or four days to study in advance about the 5 specialties.

6 We must leave room within this system for 7 specialties.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Rybczynski. You have a 9 little less than half a minute.

10 DELEGATE RYBCZYNSKI: I am going to suggest 11 to Chairman Mudd that if he in fact prevails on this 12 question, then he must give some consideration to placing 13 in another section of this same article the words "non-14 rotating," so that there will be judges available within 15 specialties who are specialists.

16 I suggest to you, Mr. Chariman, this is an 17 excellent amendment.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Does any delegate desire to speak
19 in opposition?

20 Delegate Clagett?

21 DELEGATE CLAGETT: Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition to the amendment because I am persuaded by the argument of the majority, both through its chairman
