

1 is a very well-known constitutional lawyer, ^{and} who has argued
2 many cases before the Supreme Court. He is actually
3 General Counsel to the NAACP, ^{Defense Educational Fund} ~~legal aide and defense attor-~~
4 ~~ney~~; I wanted to get the name correctly. As I say, he 5 has appeared many times before the Supreme Court. We 6 welcome anybody who would like to hear him.

7 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Mudd?

8 DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on 9 the Judicial Branch will meet again immediately following
10 this session. We had today a meeting at 1:00 o'clock
11 with the Clerks of the Court of the State of Maryland, 12 and I am happy to report at the roll call that all of my 13 members apparently returned unharmed; so I therefore hope
14 all will be here assembled after this hearing.

15 Tomorrow morning, we continue on Delegate
16 Proposals 81, 105 and 107, which have been referred to our 17 Committee. For the information of those delegates who 18 may not be entirely familiar with Delegate Proposal 81, as 19 introduced by Delegate Scanlan and Bamburger, I might 20 inform the delegates that that proposal in our Committee
21 has been characterized as the proposal to reduce the scope