

1 about six minutes left. Is that right?

2 THE CHAIRMAN: I think you have more than that.

3 DELEGATE KOSS: All right.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: About ten minutes.

5 DELEGATE KOSS: I yield three minutes to
6 Delegate Sickles.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Sickles.

8 DELEGATE SICKLES: Mr. Chairman and members
9 of the Committee, I feel like the old Chinese proverb
10 says, "In his decision, the judge with seven reasons
11 usually only gives one", so I am not going to bore you
12 with many reasons for the position I personally have held
13 for a long time, but perhaps pick out one that hasn't
14 been touched yet, one that I think if there are any left
15 in the house who have not made their mind up, they might 16 think about this for just a minute.

17 Some few years ago I became involved in the 18 national problem of juvenile delinquency. You might
19 wonder why I would bring up juvenile delinquency when I
20 am going to be in favor of lowering the voting age because 21 you should normally assume I would be then talking about
