

1 Webster's solution for rampant Jeffersonianism was
2 to raise the voting age to forty-five.

3 (Laughter)

4 DELEGATE DORSEY: Mr. President, my good friend
5 from Baltimore County told you right. He didn't come here
6 to reform the State, but he did come here to help the 7 youth. I am going to vote for his amendment to reduce
8 the age to eighteen. If that fails, then I am going to 9 vote for Amendment No. 1 to restore it at twenty-one.

10 (Laughter)

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Any Delegate desire to speak
12 in opposition?

13 Delegate Vecera.

14 DELEGATE VECERA: Mr. Chairman, Members of the 15 Committee, I would like to know, Judge Dorsey, how old is 16 Ginger?

17 DELEGATE DORSEY: I just had a note signed
18 Frank saying Ginger wanted her voting rights.

19 (Laughter)

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Any Delegate desire to speak in 21 opposition?
