

1 government, heritage, hope, individual and civil rights,
2 immortality, justice, liberty, man's dreams, peace,
3 posterity, protection, religious liberty, welfare, et cetera.

4 The preamble as submitted by our committee
5 passed by a vote of 16 to 1. I believe there was a pride
6 in authorship.

7 141 other delegates would like to have their pre-
8 amble used. The committee would really like to accommodate 9 every individual, but it cannot.

10 As Delegate Hardwicke stated, the Committee even 11 used one of his sentences. As a matter of fact, his entire 12 preamble was submitted. This preamble as submitted by 13 the committee was placed on the blackboard and word for word
14 everyone in the committee participated, and this was the com-
15 posite thinking of all participants in the writing of this 16 preamble.

17 I would urge you to vote against the amendment
18 and go along with the committee recommendation.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Does any other delegate desire
20 to speak in favor of the amendment?

21 DELEGATE HARDWICKE: Mr. Chairman, normally I