

1 THE CHAIRMAN: The Amendment having been submitted
2 by Delegate Bard, seconded by Delegate Macdonald, the Chair
3 recognizes Delegate Bard to speak to the amendment.

4 DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. Chairman.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Kiefer.

6 DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. Chairman, in an effort to 7 save time, I am beginning to think it is like the French
8 Army maxim, Number 1, "Never obey an order until you get 9 ze change." This doesn't do any harm. We anticipate such
10 a matter would have to be implemented by legislation. If 11 it would make people happier as far as I am concerned, we 12 will accept the amendment as submitted.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bard, in view of the 14 statement by the Chairman of the Committee, do you desire
15 to speak further?

16 DELEGATE BARD: To save time, I have nothing
17 else to say.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Clagett.

19 DELEGATE CLAGETT: Will Delegate Kiefer yield
20 to a question.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Kiefer.
