

1 the State would prescribe, the General Assembly by law
2 would prescribe procedural regulations to provide absolute
3 prohibition in one area. I do not think the amendment is 4 inconsistent with the previous amendment.

5 Delegate Hardwicke.

6 DELEGATE HARDWICKE: May I pursue the parliamen-
7 tary inquiry raised by Delegate Fox?

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

9 DELEGATE HARDWICKE: It seems to me if Delegate
10 Malkus' intention is to prohibit a strike, if that concept
11 is not consistent with a right to organize and bargain
12 collectively, which is an affirmative right granted already 13 by amendment, I believe Number 21, and this is an entirely
14 different concept, isn't it, Mr. Chairman?

15 THE CHAIRMAN: The basis of the Chair's ruling is 16 that it does not to the Chair seem inconsistent to state in 17 one section a right to organize and to state in another
18 section, another sentence or clause, that the procedural 19 aspects of that right, or the exercise of that right may be 20 regulated by the General Assembly and to state in another
21 sentence that notwithstanding those provisions, there is a
