

Preamble will continue its hearings this afternoon and tomorrow on the subject of due process and equal protection and rights of the poor.

In the afternoon a number of delegates who have submitted proposals, and I think there are some twenty-three at the last count that are directly or even remotely concerned with this area, have been invited to come and express their views.

If they will come promptly, we will put them on first so they can get back to committee assignments. We will meet fifteen minutes after this Convention adjourns for today.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Moser?

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Committee on Local Government will go back into session fifteen minutes after the close of this session. I again call attention to the fact that the hearing scheduled for 7:00 P.M. this evening has been cancelled. Tomorrow morning the committee will hear at 9:00 A.M. from Senator Pine of Baltimore County; at 10:00 A.M., the subject of Metropolitanism and Regional Government, as well as Intergovernmental Cooperation will be the subject of hearings, which will have as witnesses Mr. James W. Rouse, Professor F. Victor Jones, Mr. Henry Bain.

Delegate proposals which have been assigned to the Local Government Committee, will be set for hearing the week of October 9. We are sending out today notices of the times to all interested delegates, and I will announce on the floor again the specific proposals so that other interested delegates may attend those hearings if they so desire.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Morgan?

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch will meet this afternoon right after the conclusion of this session to hear from the President of the State Board of Education, Mr. Freund. Tomorrow morning we will meet at 10:00 A.M. and we will hear from Mr. Paul Wolman, who is Chairman of the Board of Parole, and Senator James Pine, of Baltimore City, who is representing the Legislative Liaison Committee.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow?

DELEGATE SHERBOW: Mr. President, the Committee on State Finance and Taxation will continue its hearings this afternoon at 4:00 P.M., at which time members of the legislature will be heard on the subject of the budget. Other members of the legislature will be invited to attend other hearings, probably to be held next week on this and other subjects relating to the financial aspect of government.

There will be hearings tomorrow, Friday and next week, all of which will be posted, so that the delegates will have ample notice, and so will the public.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Boyer?

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, the Committee on General Provisions will continue the deliberations and hopefully conclude tomorrow the phase of higher education. This afternoon we have Dr. William Shannon, Associate Executive Director of the American Association of Junior Colleges. That will be fifteen minutes after the adjournment of this meeting. Tonight at 7:30 P.M., we had scheduled Dr. Leo Pfefer, of Long Island University. Of course, all delegates are invited to any of the meetings that we have, but after consultation with Delegate Kiefer, chairman of his committee, we particularly invite tonight the members of the Personal Rights and Preamble Committee.

Tomorrow morning we will hear from Dr. Robert Lamborne, Headmaster of the McDonogh School, Dr. Wesley Dorn, Advisory Council of Higher Education, and from Dr. Harry Bard, who is the President of the Community Colleges' Presidents' Association.

Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen?

(There was no response.)

Are there any other announcements?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Mr. President, the Rules Committee will meet at 12:00 noon tomorrow to consider Resolution No. 11, which was introduced today, to consider a report from the subcommittee on recommendations with respect to Motion No. 2, as amended by the sponsors, in their appearance before our committee and to consider whether this is to be changed in order to permit delegates to introduce amendments to proposals.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements?

Are any delegates present now who were absent at roll call who desire to indicate their presence? Delegate Schloeder?
