

can do this for those particular delegates, but if there are others, and this looks like a lengthy hearing, please let us know. Otherwise we may be there for quite some time.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Mudd?

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the next meeting of the Committee on the Judicial Branch will be at the Shaw House, Baltimore City delegation room this evening. It had been advertised and noted on our calendar as 7:30 P.M. but it also had been advertised for 7:00 P.M. I can assure all parties interested that my committee will be there at 7:00 P.M. and remain until we hear all of those who are interested in being heard. Among those who have asked to be heard are Mr. Thomas N. Clifford, who wishes to speak in behalf of the SOS (Save Our State) proposed Constitution. The Committee on the Judicial Branch will have a meeting again tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M., at which time we will begin our deliberations and consideration of the proposals regarding the tax court, juvenile court, court of claims, and also the orphans court, and hopefully reach the determination promptly as to whether these courts are to be given constitutional stature.

There will be no meeting of the Judicial Branch Committee tomorrow afternoon in deference to the boat ride. Thank you, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Morgan?

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch will meet immediately following adjournment of this session to hear from State Senator John Steffey. Tomorrow, we will have a joint meeting with the Committee on the Legislative Branch to go over some of the matters of joint concern to the two Committees.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Moser?

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Committee on Local Government will next meet at 9:00 A.M. tomorrow. We are in the process of discussing and arriving at tentative conclusions on various subjects, and the subjects for tomorrow will include units of county government and municipal corporations, creation, change, dissolution, et cetera, which will be the first item of business as marked on our general schedule for Wednesday. Also the question of local legislation and classification will be discussed.

I would like to say, I notice that Delegate Raley put in certain delegate proposals today, and I would like to ask him, or at least notify him that one of the subjects for discussion tomorrow morning will be in the areas of the two proposals which he introduced today.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Koss?

DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, the Committee on Suffrage and Elections will meet tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M. We have no meeting scheduled after the session tomorrow, but will meet again Wednesday at 10:00 A.M. We are trying hard this week to push ahead, making decisions on generally the area of referendum.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, the Committee on Legislative Branch will meet immediately after the session to hear from Dr. Winslow, and again tonight at 7:45 P.M. for a public hearing. Tomorrow morning at 10, as it has been announced, we will have a joint meeting with the Committee on the Executive Branch.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Dulany?

DELEGATE DULANY: Mr. President, the Committee on Public Information will meet at 1:00 P.M. tomorrow in Room H-18 where we will hear from Delegate Malkus on Resolution No. 3. The subcommittee of this committee, chaired by Delegate Hostetter, will meet immediately upon adjournment today in the lounge.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boyer?

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, your Committee on General Provisions will meet immediately after adjournment of this session to hear from the delegates in the Convention to whom we have extended invitations to appear this afternoon. Our time is scheduled so that we can hear from you as proponents of your proposals. We will meet again tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M. for other scheduled delegates; in deference to the occasion tomorrow afternoon, we will not meet, but we will again meet to hear from individual delegates by invitation on Wednesday morning. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements of committee chairmen? Delegate Scanlan?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Mr. President, the Committee on Rules will meet tomorrow at noon to consider a report of one of its
