

Preamble has this morning considered the questions of rights of labor. The hearing has not been concluded. We have secured the use of the senate chamber again this afternoon, and I would ask the Committee and all of those persons who wish to appear to assemble at the senate chamber as soon as possible after this meeting.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Mudd?

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on the Judicial Branch this morning heard from Delegate Bennett in response to Delegate Proposal 381 referred to our Committee, and we also had extensive testimony from members of the Baltimore County Bar Association. This Committee has now concluded its hearing of witnesses and has also heard from the sponsors of every delegate proposal referred to the Committee on the Judicial Branch.

Immediately following this session we will resume our consideration of court structure, particularly the phase thereof encompassing jurisdiction of the court's system; the further provisions of the proposed draft will be continued under discussion tomorrow morning. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow?

DELEGATE SHERBOW: Mr. President, the Committee on State Finance and Taxation heard from a number of witnesses this morning on proposals still pending. We are going to act on these proposals, and we will meet again as soon as this session is over. We will meet tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M. to continue the debate and the discussion on these pending issues.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Morgan?

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch this morning decided all of the various issues relating to the office of state's attorney. This afternoon we will take up all of the various and sundry offices, the office of state librarian, the office of commissioner of the land office, the surveyor, et cetera.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Moser?

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Committee on Local Government will reconvene fifteen minutes after this session to continue its discussion on limitations on local legislation.

The Committee will meet tomorrow morning at 9:00 A.M. to hear from the Honorable C. B. Morton, Congressman of this State, and at 11:30 A.M., we will afford the proponents of Delegate Proposals 374, 375, 383 and 288 the opportunity to present their views on these proposals to the committee.

These are on miscellaneous matters which have not been dealt with by the Committee before.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Koss?

DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, the Committee on Suffrage and Elections will meet fifteen minutes after the adjournment of this afternoon's session and again tomorrow morning, continuing our consideration of referendum, and on qualifications for voting other than age.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, the Committee on the Legislative Branch will meet fifteen minutes after the end of the session and again tomorrow morning at 9:30 A.M.; also this evening at 7:45 P.M.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Dulany?

DELEGATE DULANY: Mr. President, the Committee on Public Information will meet tomorrow morning at 9:00 A.M.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boyer?

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, your Committee on General Provisions is progressing very smoothly on hearing from individual delegates on the proposals referred to our committee. We will continue this afternoon, and as late tonight as necessary to hear from each of you who may want to appear.

Tomorrow morning we have scheduled Judge Wilson K. Barnes, who will speak to the Committee at 10:00 A.M. on some matters of interest. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Penniman?

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Mr. President, the Committee on Style will meet fifteen minutes after the close of this session.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen?

(There was no response.)