

Although Delegate Boyer speaks in the past tense, we are still looking for Delegate Gallagher to continue to do good work since he is still at bat. Delegate Boyer.

DELEGATE BOYER: I was afraid of that, sir.

Mr. President, the Committee on General Provisions will meet again this evening at 8:00 P.M. in our headquarters.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen?

Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Mr. President, the Committee on Style will meet this evening at 8:00 P.M. We will schedule another one for immediately after the session tomorrow afternoon.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements?

Delegate Morgan.

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch will hold a brief meeting tomorrow morning at 9:30 A.M.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Powers, not for the purpose of moving adjournment, but to make an announcement.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, the Committee on Calendar and Agenda will meet tomorrow morning to consider a matter on which we are receiving more and more pressure from the delegates as the debate goes on.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Grant, do you have an announcement to make?

I am sorry—Delegate White, do you have an announcement to make?

DELEGATE WHITE: Mr. President, I wish to add my expression to the statements that were made by Delegate Kiefer of the manner of calmness with which you have been possessed in this long day, and also to anticipate that for the first time today that regardless of some of the problems we had, we were able to vote on certain issues in the majority, regardless of the incessant questions that were raised.

I think this Convention is to be complimented.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you, Delegate White.

Are there any further announcements by other delegates?

Delegate Boyles.

DELEGATE BOYLES: I would like to make my presence noted.

THE PRESIDENT: Does any other delegates absent at roll call that desire to indicate their presence?

(There was no response.)

Delegate Hardwicke.

DELEGATE HARDWICKE: Not for that purpose, Mr. President, but a point of inquiry: Am I correct in assuming that you intend to follow roughly the same schedule that we did today, 10:00 A.M. and 2:00 P.M. sessions for the meeting of the Committee of the Whole?

THE PRESIDENT: Yes. We would hope to maintain a schedule of operating from 10:00 A.M. to about 6:00 P.M., with a break for lunch at 12:30 P.M. to 2:00 P.M., as nearly as we can.

Delegate Storm.

DELEGATE STORM: Mr. President, I would like to note, if it is in order, that Delegate Sybert was here all afternoon. His presence was not noted at the roll call, but he just had to leave to go to a bar meeting.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair will note that he saw Delegate Sybert present throughout most of the afternoon.

DELEGATE STORM: That was a bar association meeting.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements?

The Chair will recognize Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. Chairman, I move we adjourn until 10:00 A.M. tomorrow morning.

THE PRESIDENT: All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

(Whereupon, at 6:00 P.M., the Convention was adjourned, to reconvene at 10:00 A.M. on Friday, November 10, 1967.)
