

Parnham; and Francis Digges, Esquires; for Baltimore county, Elijah Merryman, John Tolly Worthington, Charles Ridgely, of William, and James Carroll, Esquires; for Dorchester county, Solomon Frazier, Richard Goldsborough, Richard Pattison, and Levin Campbell; Esquires; for Cæcil county, Levi Hollingsworth, Samuel Miller, Thomas Wallace, and Thomas Savin, Esquires; for Prince-George's county, Walter Bowie, Allen Bowie Duckett, George Calvert, and William Baker, Esquires; for the City of Annapolis, Allen Quynn, and Philip Barton Key, Esquires; for Queen-Anne's county, Joseph Hopper Nicholson, James Brown, James Butcher, and Charles Frazier, Esquires; for Worcester county, William Whittington, James B. Robins, William Corbin, and Ephraim K. Wilson, Esquires; for Frederick county, Valentine Brothier, Allen Quynn, junior, William Beatty, and David Shriver, Esquires; for Caroline county, John Bennett, Joshua Driver, John Young, and Thomas Boone, Esquires; for Baltimore-town, David M^cMechen, and Robert Smith, Esquires; for Washington county, John Cellar, Thomas Bowles, James M^cClain, and Robert Douglass, Esquires; for Montgomery county, Daniel Reintzel, Elimelech Swearingen, Lawrence Oneale, and David Luckett, Esquires; for Allegany county, John Conrod Beatty, Daniel Clarke, junior, Afa Beall, and Benjamin Tomlinson, Esquires. The committee further report, that by the certificate of the sheriff of Talbot county it appears, that the said sheriff was prevented by sickness from personally attending as judge of said election, but that he authorized one of his deputy sheriffs to hold the said election, from whom there has been no return; that the polls have been returned by the sheriff, whereby it appears, that Philemon Sherwood, John Harwood, Henry Johnson, and Wrightson Lamdin, Esquires, had a majority of votes; but whether the said return be sufficiently regular, the committee submit to the consideration of the house. The committee further report, that the return of the sheriff of Somerset county appears to them not to be made agreeably to the constitution and form of government of this state, the said sheriff not having returned any persons duly elected for said county, but only stating, that Benjamin Jones, Esquire, had ninety-five votes; Lambert Hyland, Esquire, eighty-one votes; Richard Handy, Esquire, seventy-six votes, and John Wilkins, Esquire, sixty votes. Your committee further report, that it appears by the return of the sheriff of Harford county, that Abraham Jarrett, Edward Prall, John Montgomery, and Jacob Norris, Esquires, were elected for Harford county, but your committee are informed, that the said Jacob Norris, at the time of his being elected, was a field-officer in the militia of this state. All which is submitted to the house.
