

the age of 19 embarked in the mercantile business at Laytonsville. Success attended him, and about five years ago, having amassed a snug fortune, he sold out his business, and has since been living on his farm near Laytonsville. For many years he has been prominently identified with Republican politics, and is regarded as a safe and wise adviser. His popularity is attested by the fact that in the recent election he carried his own (Laytonsville) district, which has a normal Democratic majority of about 25, by 60 majority.

GEORGE MINOR ANDERSON.

George Minor Anderson is 39 years of age, and is a native of Montgomery. He was educated at St. John's College, Annapolis, and the United States Military Academy at West Point. After spending some years on surveying expeditions, he returned to Rockville, and was elected surveyor for Montgomery county. Mr. Anderson built up a large private business, but decided to take up the study of law. In 1890 he entered the National University Law School at Washington, and two years later graduated among the first four in his class. He at once became a member of the Montgomery county bar, and has since been one of its most successful practitioners. He is unmarried.

PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY—Three Members.

GEORGE S. DOVE.

George S. Dove is a prominent and successful merchant of Spalding's district. He was born in the Eighth district of Anne Arundel county about 45 years ago. In 1893, he was elected on the Democratic ticket to the office of Sheriff, and served a term of two years. He is married.

ROBINSON WHITE.

Robinson White is a resident of Kent district, and is about 35 years of age. His father was Charles White, a well-known Washington city business man. He is a lawyer by profession, and practices in the courts of Washington city. He is also a Justice of the Peace for Prince George's county.

THOMAS M. UNDERWOOD.

Thomas M. Underwood enjoys the distinction of being the only Republican elected in 1897 on the Legislative