

Caroline County—HARRY A. ROE, Republican.

Senator Roe is the son of the late Andrew B. Roe, who was Senator in 1882 and 1884. He was born in Minnesota, in 1857, but in 1859 moved to Caroline county, where he has since resided. He was educated in the public schools and Dover Conference Academy. He has been closely identified with the fruit and vegetable packing business, and until 1902 had never taken much interest in politics. He was elected for a term of four years in 1901.

Carroll County—JOHNZIE E. BEASMAN, Democrat.

Senator Beasman was born near Sykesville, and is 51 years of age. He is the son of Capt. Joshua Beasman. His early education was received in the public schools of Carroll County. Subsequently he entered the Maryland Agricultural College, where he graduated. From his graduation up to the present time he has been engaged in farming and dairying at Sykesville. He has been actively identified with his party affairs all his life. He was elected three times to the House of Delegates—namely, in 1884, 1886 and 1894, and twice to the Senate, in 1899 and 1903. As a member of the General Assembly he served on many important committees, including that of the Ways and Means. He was a member of the State Live Stock Board for four years.

Cecil County—HENRY M. McCULLOUGH, Republican.

Mr. McCullough was born September 24, 1858, at Elkton. His father, James T. McCullough, was a prominent member of the Cecil bar, and represented his county in the Senate in 1855. His mother was a daughter of Col. George E. Mitchell, who served with distinction in the United States Army in the War of 1812, and who was a member of Congress for three terms. Mr. McCullough acquired his education at the Elkton Academy and at Princeton. He read law under his father, and was admitted to the bar in June, 1881. In 1900 he was elected one of the Presidential Electors at large by the Republican party. In 1901 he was elected to the State Senate, defeating Senator Austin L. Crowthers, who was a candidate for re-election.

Charles County—GEORGE T. C. GRAY, Republican.

Senator Gray was born in Charles County, May 6, 1852. He was educated at the public schools, and afterwards engaged in farming and merchandising. He was a member of the Board of County Commissioners in 1895, and was chosen president of the Board. In 1897 Mr. Gray was elected to the State Senate, and re-elected in 1901.
