

Queen Anne's County—JAMES E. KIRWAN, Democrat.

Mr. Kirwan was born in Baltimore City, June 9, 1848. His father was Capt. Lemuel Kirwan, of Dorchester County. For two years he was department commander of the oyster navy, and was one of the most active men in the service. While still commander of a bay vessel he engaged in mercantile business in Stevensville, Kent Island, and made himself one of the most successful business men in the county. He is a large real estate owner on Kent Island, and is a director in the Centreville National Bank. He is connected with Arcana Lodge of Masons in Baltimore, and is also a member of the Improved Order of Heptasophs and Knights of Pythias on Kent Island. He was re-elected to the Senate this fall.

St. Mary's County—JAMES J. GREENWELL, Democrat.

Senator Greenwell was born in 1863, and educated at Mount St. Mary's College and Fordham, N. Y. In 1871 he was nominated and elected Clerk of the Circuit Court, and in 1897 was renominated, but defeated. In 1899 he was nominated for the House of Delegates, but declined. In 1900 he was appointed chief clerk in State Tobacco Warehouse. In 1901 he reluctantly accepted the nomination for the House, and successfully defeated the "tall sycamore of the Patuxent," thereby earning the title of the "tall hickory of the Potomac." Senator Greenwell rendered important service in the session of 1902.

Somerset County—STEPHEN FRANK DASHIELL, Democrat.

Mr. Dashiell, one of the new members of the Senate, was born at Dame's Quarter, Somerset County, October 29, 1862. He is a merchant and canner, but has held the position of postmaster and Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue for the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia. Senator Dashiell was elected November, 1903.

Talbot County—ROBERT B. DIXON, Republican.

Senator Dixon was born in Baltimore, August 22, 1834. A few years thereafter his father, James Dixon, moved to Talbot county, settling on land that has been in his wife's family—the Bartletts—for over two hundred years. Here the subject of this sketch was educated by a private tutor, then the public schools, and afterwards graduated, in 1852, from West Town Boarding School, in Chester county, Pa. He then commenced farming on Miles river—same farm he still resides
