Caroline County—WILLIAM W. GOLDSBOROUGH, Democrat—Greensboro.

Dr. William Winder Goldsborough, of Caroline county, was born May 4, 1875, in Fauquier county, Va. He is a grandson of the late Dr. Griffin W. Goldsborough, who served in both the Legislature and State Senate of Maryland, and a son of W. L. Goldsborough, who was formerly consul to Amoy, China. The Doctor has three brothers, W. Laird Goldsborough, Judge Advocate of Manila, P. I.; W. E. Goldsborough, who was chief of the Electrical Building at the St. Louis Exposition, and S. Alan Goldsborough. State's Attorney for Caroline county. He received his education at the Rockville Academy and Washington College, Chestertown, and graduated from the University of Maryland School of Medicine in the spring of 1901. The following fall he was elected to the House of Delegates, leading the legislative part of the ticket, serving with credit to his county during the session of 1902. In the spring of that year he established the Caroline "Sun" at Ridgely, Md., which is one of the most progressive journals in the county today. The following fall he settled in Greensboro and has since been successfully practicing his profession there. In the spring of 1903 he was elected president of the Board of Town Commissioners of Greensboro, of which body he is still a member. The Doctor has always taken an active interest in public affairs, having served as a delegate in several county and Congressional conventions, and the State Convention which nominated the Hon. Edwin Warfield for Governor. He was the only successful candidate on the Democratic ticket at the 1906 election, having defeated Henry Clay Hobbs for the Senate. He is a Master Mason and a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church.
