

ing a total of $22,250. The estimate put upon this property at this time is much larger, and its value is considered to be about $30,000.

FIFTH REGIMENT ARMORY.

The land on which this armory stands is located in Baltimore city, and was acquired from William Wallace Spence in 1900 at a cost of $125,000, and occupies a space 366 feet by 328 feet and 3 inches. The armory, which is considered one of the largest and finest in the world, was erected at a cost of $500,000, making the total cost $625,000.

PENITENTIARY.

The Penitentiary is located in Baltimore city and occupies land containing about 8 acres. It was conveyed to the State by more than sixty deeds, the first of which was in 1811, and the others in 1891. It is improved by modern buildings considered the finest in the country, the total cost of which, including the land, was $2,500,000. It pays all the expenses of the institution; and the managers turned into the Treasury a surplus of about $37,000 last year.

HAY SCALES.

The State owns four hay scales, one located in Havre de Grace, and three in Baltimore city, known as the North-eastern, Western and Northwestern.

The land at Havre de Grace was purchased in 1878 from Louis K. Herbst et al., at a cost of $150. This is about 170 feet by 30 feet, and is improved by a hay scales and shed, which cost about $20,000, making the total cost about $20,150.

The Northeastern Hay Scales, located in Baltimore city on Greenmount avenue, occupies a space of 75 feet by 36 feet, and was purchased in 1876 from James C. Rowe and wife et al., at a cost of $4,300. The improvements are similar to those at Havre de Grace, and cost about $20,000, making the total cost about $24,300.

The Western Hay Scales, located on Frederick road, occupy a space 78 feet by 20 feet, and was purchased in 1878 from Charles Shipley at a cost of $1,000. It is improved by a scales and shed, costing about $20,000, making the total cost about $21,000.

The Northwestern Hay Scales stands on land at the intersection of Fremont and Myrtle avenues (formerly Cove