

ary 13, 1904, and immediately commenced the practice of law in Hagerstown. In April, 1904, he was appointed City Attorney for Hagerstown, serving until July 1906. In the Fall of 1907 he was elected State's Attorney for Washington County, serving one term, from January 1st, 1908, to January 1st, 1912. From that date Mr. Armstrong has devoted his entire time to private practice, his work taking him before the Courts and Commissions of Maryland and also before the Federal Court of Baltimore. The law offices in Hagerstown, with which Mr. Armstrong is still connected, are conducted under the name of Armstrong and Scott. In September, 1919, Mr. Armstrong was nominated by the Republican State Convention for Attorney General of Maryland and was elected to that office on November 4th, 1919. Mr. Armstrong was married to Miss Mary Rebekah Woods, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hiram Woods of Baltimore City, on January 25, 1911. They have one son, Alexander Armstrong, Jr.

The Adjutant General: HENRY M. WARFIELD (Democrat), Baltimore County.

Henry M. Warfield, the twenty-first Adjutant General of Maryland, was born in Baltimore July 1, 1867. He is a son of the late Henry M. Warfield, who was a member of the State Legislature of 1861, and the candidate for Mayor of Baltimore on the reform ticket in 1875. General Warfield's connection with the National Guard of Maryland dates from November 1, 1885, when he enlisted as a private in Company K, 5th Infantry, serving as such until November 1, 1888, the date of his election as 2nd Lieutenant of that company. He was elected 1st Lieutenant, Company F, 5th Infantry, April 16, 1891, serving in this position until commissioned Captain and Inspector of Rifle Practice on the Regimental Staff, March 14, 1892. He was elected Captain Company B, 5th Infantry, December 12th, 1892, and Major 5th Infantry, October 28th, 1895. He served as a Major in this Regiment until June 30th, 1903, on which date he was elected and commissioned Colonel of the Regiment, holding this position until appointed Adjutant General by His Excellency, Governor Crothers, January 22nd, 1908. General Warfield was again appointed Adjutant General by Governor Harrington, March 3rd, 1916.

During the Spanish-American War he was mustered into the service of the United States as Major in the 5th Maryland
