

U. S. Volunteer Infantry, May 13th, 1898, serving until this regiment was mustered out, October 22nd, 1898.

General Warfield has always taken much interest in the affairs of his native city, both business and social. He is the Resident Manager of the Royal Insurance Company, Limited, of Liverpool, with offices in the Chamber of Commerce Building, Baltimore. He is President of the Association of Fire Underwriters, Vice-President of the Baltimore Board of Trade, and a member of the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce and Merchants and Manufacturers' Association. His membership in the Clubs of Baltimore includes the Maryland Club, the Elkridge Kennels, Merchants' Club, L'Hirondelle Club of Ruxton and the Bachelors' Cotillion.

General Warfield resides at Timonium, Baltimore County.

---

State Treasurer: WILLIAM P. JACKSON (Republican). Salisbury, Maryland.

William P. Jackson, son of William H. and Arabella H. Jackson, was born at Salisbury, Maryland, Jan. 11, 1868. His forefathers, who were Scotch-Irish, were among the early settlers of the Maryland peninsula and have always been closely identified with its government and development.

He was educated at the Wilmington Conference Academy at Dover, Delaware, and after finishing his education, entered the lumber business as a partner in the firm of E. E. Jackson & Co., Salisbury, Maryland, on the dissolution of this firm, he and his father organized the present firm of Jackson Brothers Co., of which he is now president and active manager; he is also president of the Salisbury National Bank. Jackson & Gutman Co., Salisbury Ice Co., Citizens Gas Co., and Peninsula General Hospital; owns and operates a large dairy farm and is extensively engaged in the breeding of registered Holstein-Friesian cattle.

Mr. Jackson has been a member of the Republican National Committee since 1908 and was a member of the United States Senate from 1912 to 1914, having been appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Isador Rayner; he has been twice married, his first wife was Sallie McCoombs of Havre de Grace, Md., whom he married in 1890, from this union two children were born, Belle McCoombs Jackson and William Newton Jackson, after the death of his first wife he married Katherine Shelmerdine of Philadelphia and from