The said bill was then sent to the Senate.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message:

BY THE SENATE,

January 8th, 1867.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

With the concurrence of your Honorable Body, we desire the return of a message transmitted to your Body on the 4th instant, asking the appointment of a Joint Committee of ten, an equal number from each House, to report a bill for the enfranchisement and restoration to rights of citizenship of certain citizens of this State, as this subject had already been covered by leave to report a bill in your Honorable Body, of which, at the time of our message, we were not aware.

By order,

A. GASSAWAY,
Secretary.

Which was read.

On motion of Mr. Ford,
The House adjourned.
