

Hon. Enoch B. Hutton, a delegate to this House from Montgomery county, who died at the City Hotel of this city, March 17th, at 5.30 o'clock P. M. As a testimonial of respect for the memory of the deceased, and of our sorrow for his death, and in sympathy for his bereaved and afflicted family, we propose, with the concurrence of your honorable body, that the two Houses of the General Assembly do now adjourn till half-past 7 o'clock P. M., and that the members of both Houses will wear the usual badge of mourning. And we further propose the appointment of a joint committee of both Houses consisting of four members on the part of this House and two on the part of the Senate to attend the funeral of the deceased.

We have appointed on the part of this House Messrs. Burche, Hall, Morgan and Judge Carmichael.

By order.

WM. R. COLE,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to and sent to the Senate.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message:

BY THE SENATE,

March 18th, 1867.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received the message of your honorable body announcing the death of Enoch B. Hutton, late a member of the House of Delegates, from Montgomery county.

We deeply sympathize in the sad feelings which this painful dispensation has excited in the bosom of colleagues and associates, and cordially unite with your Hon. body in the disposition to pay all proper and becoming respect to the memory of the deceased in acknowledgment of his estimable character, his many virtues and faithful public services. In accordance with the action and suggestion of your honorable body the Senate will now adjourn.

We have appointed Messrs. Young and Spates on the part of the Senate to attend the funeral obsequies of the deceased.

By order,

A. GASSAWAY,
Secretary.

The House then adjourned until 7½ o'clock P. M.
