

JOURNAL.

STATE OF MARYLAND, TO WIT:

Wednesday, the 2d day of January, 1867, being the day appointed by the Constitution for the meeting of the General Assembly, Lieutenant Governor Cox, President of the Senate, took the Chair, and the following Senators appeared and took their seats:

Harford County—William B. Stephenson.

Cecil County—Jacob Tome.

Caroline County—Curtis Davis.

Dorchester County—William Frazier.

Washington County—Elias Davis.

Calvert County—Richard Mackall.

Kent County—George Vickers.

Somerset County—L. L. Waters.

The following Senators elect, also appeared and qualified before the President by taking and subscribing the oath prescribed by the Constitution and Laws, and took their seats:

Charles H. Ohr, of Allegany County; Thomas Mules, Douglas Stirling, William Kimmel, of Baltimore City; Isaac Young, of Montgomery County; Eli J. Henkle, Anne Arundel County; Oden Bowie, Prince George's County; Barnes Compton, Charles County; G. F. Maddox, St. Mary's County; Charles M. Jump, Talbot County; Levin J. M. P. Broadwater, Worcester County; James T. Earle, Queen Anne's County.

Lieut. Governor Cox, President of the Senate, then delivered his opening address to the Senate:

SENATORS:

At the opening of another regular session of the General Assembly of Maryland, I take pleasure in renewing to you my congratulations and best wishes. It is pleasant, while greeting the familiar faces of a former Senate, to recognize the presence of the recently elected members who are about to enter upon their Legislative labors. Gratifying, too, is the reflection, that at this critical juncture in public affairs, an