

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Hillen Road Company of Baltimore county, created and incorporated by the Act of January session, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, Chapter ninety-nine, shall if said company deem it necessary and proper, have the power and is hereby authorized to change the location of said road, and adopt and make such location thereof as may be deemed most convenient and suitable for constructing and extending said road from its place of beginning to its place of termination, as contemplated and authorized by the second section of the Act of one thousand eight hundred and sixty, Chapter fifty-one.

Incorporated
—power and privileges.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That said Company, in making the road or railway authorized to be constructed by the second section of the Act of one thousand eight hundred and sixty, Chapter fifty-one, shall have the power to make and construct the same, with single or double tracks and sidelings, such as may be deemed expedient for horse or steam power, either or both of which powers said company is at liberty to use in the transportation of passengers, agricultural produce, fertilizers, and every other description of freight, and said road shall be made with a width not exceeding sixty feet, with the necessary additions for excavations and embankments.

May make double or single tracks.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if the said Company cannot obtain the consent of the owner or owners of ground to locate and make said road or railway in such location as may be deemed judicious and suitable, that then said company shall have and exercise rights, powers and privileges conferred upon and vested in the Baltimore, Catonsville and Ellicott's Mills Passenger Railway Company by the seventh section of the Act of one thousand eight hundred and sixty, Chapter thirty-four, for condemning and acquiring to the use of said company such ground as might be necessary to the construction of said road; and the manner of proceeding in any such condemnation or inquisition shall be as set forth in the seventh section of the Act last herein mentioned, except that a Justice of the Peace and Sheriff of Baltimore county, and the Clerk and Judge of the

In case consent cannot be obtained.