

impose such reasonable fines, forfeitures, or imprisonment in said watch-house as to them may appear necessary for the violation of any ordinance of said town, and they shall have power to require a license from all circuses, manageries, theatrical exhibitions and other shows and exhibitions for gain exhibiting in said town; they shall have power to require a license from the owners and keepers of hacks, carts, wagons, drays and every description of wheeled carriages kept for hire in said town, and also from auction stores, hawkers and pedlars.

Sec. 90. The Mayor and Councilmen may, when requested in writing by the owners of a majority of the front feet of the property or lots on any street or alley or parts thereof in said town, cause the same to be graded, paved or otherwise improved, and assess and levy the expenses thereof on the property or lots binding on such street or alley in proportion to the number of front feet such property or lots bind thereon; and the sum levied shall be a lien on the property or lots on which the same shall be levied, and if the same shall remain unpaid for sixty days after the same is due, and there be no personal property of the owner of said property, lot or lots thereon, upon which the bailiff of said town may levy and make the sum assessed, the same may be levied on so much of the said property, lot or lots of the person owing such taxes as the said Mayor or Councilmen shall deem sufficient to pay the same, which they shall lay off and designate, and after the same is so laid off and designated the bailiff of said town shall, after at least twenty days previous notice published in some newspaper printed in the City of Cumberland, and notice posted in said town of the manner, time, place and terms of sale, sell the part or parts of said property, lot or lots so laid off, at public sale for cash, after deducting the expenses of advertising and sale and paying the sums levied as aforesaid, shall pay the balance if any over to the owner of the property so sold; and the guardian of an infant or infant owners shall have full power on behalf of his ward or wards to make application under this Section, and the Mayor and Councilmen shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed of the property sold with the seal of the said town

May grade
and pave
streets, &c.