

SIXTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Candidates—

Andrew J. Cummings, Democratic, Montgomery Co., Md.

Thomas W. Koon, Democratic, Allegany Co., Md.

Frank W. Mish, Democratic, Washington Co., Md.

David C. Winebrenner, 3rd, Democratic, Frederick, Frederick Co.

Counties	Cummings	Koon	Mish	Winebrenner
Allegany	235	2,847	128	91
Garrett	54	316	36	11
Washington	43	333	1,916	104
Frederick	73	729	392	3,414
Montgomery	885	275	457	2,240
Totals.....	1,390	4,500	2,929	5,860

Thos. L. Dawson, Republican, Montgomery Co., Md.

Jos. W. Wolfinger, Republican, Washington Co., Md.

Frederick N. Zihlman, Republican, Cumberland, Allegany Co., Md.

Counties	Dawson	Wolfinger	Zihlman
Allegany	576	89	3,534
Garrett	113	31	740
Washington	638	530	1,142
Frederick	1,344	116	1,221
Montgomery	1,987	36	857
Totals.....	4,658	802	7,494

On September 8, 1924, Dr. George Heller was nominated by the Democratic State Central Committee as the Democratic Candidate from the Third Congressional District of Maryland for Representative in the 69th Congress.

On October 8, 1924, John R. M. Staum was nominated by the Republican State Central Committee as the Republican Candidate from the Fourth Congressional District of Maryland for Representative in the 69th Congress.

On October 11, 1924, Hon. Sydney E. Mudd died, creating a vacancy in the 68th Congress from the 5th Congressional District of Maryland.

On October 15, 1924, Charles E. Chance declined the nomination for Representative in the 69th Congress from the 5th Congressional District of Maryland.

On October 16, 1924, the Democratic State Central Committee nominated Stephen W. Gambrell for Representative in the 68th Congress (to fill vacancy) and for Representative in the 69th Congress from the 5th Congressional District of Maryland.

On October 16, 1924, the Republican State Central Committee nominated Thomas B. R. Mudd to fill vacancy in the 68th Congress and for Representative in the 69th Congress from the 5th Congressional District of Maryland.

All other candidates not nominated in the Primary Election were nominated by Convention or Petition as required by the Maryland Law.