

CHAPTER 245.

AN ACT relating to the Trial of Facts in the several Counties of this State.

In case of application of either party.

Affidavit filed.

Court may order the case to any county.

Applied to cases that have been removed.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in any suit or action at law hereafter to be commenced or instituted in any county court of this state, or which may be now pending in such county court, in which a suggestion in writing shall be made by either party, according to the provisions of law regulating the removal of causes from one court to another, upon the order of said court being made for removal of said suit or action, if the opposite party shall file an affidavit in writing, suggesting that he, she or they, cannot have justice done him, her or them, in the county to which the court shall order the said suit or action to be removed, then the said court shall remove the said suit or action to such county as they, under all the circumstances, shall think will be most likely to effect justice between the parties.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That in any action or suit now depending in any county court of this state, which may have been removed to said county court, on the affidavit of either party, it shall and may be lawful for the party at whose instance the said suit was [not] removed, if he, she or they, shall think that justice cannot be done him, her or them, in the said county, to which said action or suit has been removed, to file an affidavit, as now required by law, suggesting that he, she or they, cannot have justice in said county, [] where the said county court shall remove the said action or suit to such county as the said court shall think will best tend to justice between the parties to said suit.

CHAPTER 267.

AN ACT prescribing general regulations for the Incorporation of Manufacturing and Mining Companies.

Regulations for future charters.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whensoever, hereafter, any joint stock company, shall be incorporated for the purposes of manufacturing, or for the purposes of exploring, and mining for gold, coal, copper, iron, or other mineral substances, such company shall be established with the rights and privileges, and under the rules, regulations and restrictions, herein after provided.

Power to sue and be sued.

Seal.

Hold estate.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That said company shall have power, under the name and style set forth in the act of incorporations, to sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, to have and use a common seal, and change the same at pleasure, and may hold real estate, the number of acres, and the county or counties, city or cities, town or towns, in which said real estate is situate, to be specified in the said act of incorpora-
