

school fund now in the hands of the treasurer, among the several school districts, to be appropriated in the erection of school-houses, the purchase of stationery, fuel, and so forth, and that in case the said inspectors shall be satisfied that the requisite number of school-houses have been erected, they are hereby authorized to appropriate the said amount of levy among the several school districts for the general purposes of said schools.

School trustees.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the trustees of the several school districts shall be elected in the manner provided in the original act, and shall be charged with the duties imposed in that act, and shall have the power of exercising discipline in their respective schools by the expulsion of the refractory pupil, or such other punishment as may be necessary to correct the evil.

Their duties, powers

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the said trustees shall be charged with the same duties, and shall be liable to the same penalties as are imposed by the original act, except so far as the same may be hereby repealed; and the said trustees are hereby authorized to receipt for all moneys received by them from the inspectors, and shall apply the same as herein before provided, the moneys specially appropriated for the erection of school-houses, the purchase of stationery, fuel, and so forth, to the purposes specified, and the residue in the payment of teachers and other general purposes of the schools, and make report and returns in the mode and manner provided in the original act, all the proceedings of said trustees to be subject to the revision of the board of inspectors.

Report.

Charge for tuition authorized.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said trustees be, and they are hereby authorized in their discretion to charge each pupil whose parent or estate, under the charge of a guardian, may in the judgment of the trustees be enabled to pay the same, the sum of twenty-five cents per month, the money arising from which said charge to be used by the trustees for the general purposes of the school, and to be by them accounted for in their returns to the inspectors.

Collector and clerk abolished. Collector of the county to collect, &c.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the offices of clerk and collector, provided for in the original act, be, and the same are hereby abolished, and that the collector of the county be authorized and required to collect the amount levied upon the county, and pay the same when collected, over to the inspectors of primary schools, to be by them applied in the manner herein before mentioned.

Purchase school-house.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the trustees aforesaid be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to contract for and purchase any school-houses now built for the use of primary schools aforesaid; and that they may permit any of the said school-houses to be used for public worship.

Use for worship.