

the damages sustained by the person or persons at whose request such inquisition shall be taken, by transfer of his, her or their land about to be made as aforesaid, and the persons so summoned and so qualified, shall proceed to value the damages accordingly, and such inquisition shall be conclusive and final; Provided; that in such appeal from the valuation made by the commissioners, should the valuation of said commissioners be confirmed or reduced by the jury, by this section directed to be summoned, the party appealing shall pay the whole expense incurred thereby. Costs thereof.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the commissioners and jurors aforesaid, shall be allowed for each and every day they shall be employed under the provisions of this act, two dollars and costs necessarily incurred, to be collected and paid as other county charges are. Compensation to commissioners and jurors.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the commissioners as aforesaid, if there be no appeal from their decision within one month after said decision is made, or jurors, if there be an appeal, when they shall have completed their valuation, and done all things required of them by this act, shall make out a copy of their proceedings, setting forth in the same, a full description of the lands and house by them valued, for the use of the ferry or ferries, and all things connected with the said valuation, and the performance of the duties assigned them by this act, and to the said copy they shall subscribe their names, and set their seals, and deposite the same in the office of the clerk of the county court, and the said clerk of the said court shall preserve a record of the said proceedings, for the recording of which he shall be entitled to the same fee which he receives for other records, to be paid by the levy court. Copy of proceedings Recorded.

A further SUPPLEMENT to an Act, entitled, an Act to regulate Public Ferries.—1833, ch. 151.

WHEREAS, sundry citizens of Somerset county have represented to this general assembly, that the interests of said county would be greatly promoted by purchasing ferry boats, at the expense of said county, and the petition of said citizens appearing reasonable; wherefore, Preamble.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Somerset county, are hereby authorized at their discretion, to purchase or contract for the building ferry boats, for the public ferries in said county, the cost of which shall be taxed as other county charges. Authority to build boats, &c.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the ferryman, who shall be appointed and licensed by the levy court of said county, shall enter into bond with sufficient security, to the levy court of Bond of ferrymen.