

AN ACT Supplemental to an Act, entitled, an Act to provide for building a new Court-house in the Town of Cumberland, in Allegany County, passed December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-three, chapter eighty-nine.—1839, ch. 48.

Levy to be made.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of Allegany county may, in their discretion, assess and levy on the assessable property of said county, at the time of making their next public levies, such sum of money as in their judgment shall be necessary for finishing and completing said court-house; Provided, that they shall not in any one year levy a greater sum than one thousand dollars, nor in the whole, a greater sum than four thousand dollars.

Proviso.

Collectors' commission

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners at their regular annual levies, in addition to such levies as they may make for completing said court-house, may levy a sufficient sum to pay the collector's commission for collecting the same, and that the assessment hereby authorized to be made and levied, shall be collected by the collector of the county charges for the time being, in the same manner as other public charges are by law collected, and the said money, or any instalment thereof, when collected, shall be paid over by such collector to the aforesaid commissioners, or the majority of them, appointed under the act to which this is a supplement, and they, or a majority of them, are required to apply the same to the use and purpose by this act directed.

Powers extended.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all the powers and duties conferred on the said commissioners, by the eighth section of the act to which this is a supplement, be, and the same are hereby extended to and fully vested in the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them.

AN ACT to abolish the Magistrates' Courts of Allegany County, and to extend the jurisdiction of a single Justice of the Peace in said County. 1839, ch. 103.

Act repealed so far as regards Allegany.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of May, eighteen hundred and forty, the act, entitled, an act to establish magistrates' courts in the several counties in this state, and to prescribe the jurisdiction, passed December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred and one, and the several supplements thereto, so far as the same relates to Allegany county, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

A single justice of the peace to have jurisdiction

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That after the first day of May next, a single justice of the peace in Allegany county, shall hold and have original jurisdiction in all cases over which they now have jurisdiction, when the debt or damages laid or
