

	Page.
Apprentices not to be carried out of the state—1793, ch. 45, sec. 11,	299
Any justice, on information of such a design, (except by mariners,) may require recognizance of the master, and on refusal, may discharge such apprentice from his service, and provide another master—1793, ch. 45, sec. 11,	299
Apprentices, (except to tradesmen and mechanics in town,) may be compelled to perform reasonable labour in wheat, rye, and hay harvests, unless the contract shall be otherwise—1793, ch. 45, sec. 13,	300
The widow of a master empowered, on certain conditions, to assign the apprentice to some other person of the same trade—1793, ch. 45, sec. 14, 15,	300
The new master and the apprentice bound to perform the residue of the contract—1793, ch. 45, sec. 14,	300
The consideration given, to be for the use of the widow, and not assets of the deceased husband—1793, ch. 45, sec. 14,	300
Female apprentices shall serve out the residue of their time with the widows, who shall comply with the original contract—1793, ch. 45, sec. 14,	300
Widows not choosing to keep such apprentices, shall carry them to the orphans court to be bound out again—1793, ch. 45, sec. 14,	300
Apprentices, on the death of their masters, are to continue at home under the control of the widows, till order is taken by the court, &c.—1793, ch. 45, sec. 16,	301
The court empowered to continue such apprentices as long as they are satisfied the contract is fulfilled—1793, ch. 45, sec. 16,	301
Penalty on harbouring such apprentices—1793, ch. 45, sec. 16,	301
Penalty on carrying or sending apprentices out of the state without passes—1715, ch. 19, sec. 5,	9
Penalty on ordinary-keepers harbouring, entertaining, or selling liquor to them—March, 1780, ch. 24, sec. 17,	161
Any person applying after the first of February, 1793, for a branch to act as a pilot, shall produce testimony of his having served four years as an apprentice to some pilot in the state, or of his having procured a branch before that time—1803, ch. 63, sec. 2,	483
One white apprentice to be taken by every pilot within three months after obtaining his warrant, and instructed in the art of piloting—1803, ch. 63, sec. 20,	487
Such apprentice to have freedom dues, and during his apprenticeship to be exempted from militia duty—1803, ch. 63, sec. 20,	487
The children of paupers or vagrants may be brought before the orphans courts, or in their recess, before the trustees of the poor or any two justices of the peace, and bound out as apprentices according to the act of 1793, ch. 45—1808, ch. 54,	561
Same as to the children of lazy and indolent free negroes—1808, ch. 54,	562
The inspectors of the penitentiary, or any three of them, empowered to bind as apprentices, the free male convicts, whose time shall expire before they are of age; any free female convicts till sixteen,	