

	Page.
Ordinary, tavern or inn, victualling house, cook shop or oyster house, or any place where spirituous or fermented liquors shall be sold in quantities less than a pint, prohibited, without obtaining a license therefor—1827, ch. 117, sec. 3, . . . . .	930
Such license shall not be granted by clerk of county or city court to persons to whom the grand jury shall object, without special direction of the court—1827, ch. 117, sec. 3, . . . . .	930
Clerk of county or city court to grant license to keep a victualling house, or cook shop, or oyster house, on receiving $12 therefor, and a license to keep an ordinary, tavern, inn, &c. on receiving $18 therefor—1827, ch. 117, sec. 4,* . . . . .	930
Said license to prescribe the place, &c.—1827, ch. 117, sec. 4, . . . . .	930
Duration limited to the first of May thereafter—1827, ch. 117, sec. 4, . . . . .	931
Sheriffs directed to publish notices, and return to the clerk of the county court, lists of persons that ought to have license to sell, &c.—1827, ch. 117, sec. 4, . . . . .	931
Shall return, monthly, all additions occurring to said list—1827, ch. 117, sec. 4, . . . . .	931
Clerk of county and city courts, to return half yearly, on or before the first day of May and first day of November, to the treasurer of the western shore, an account of all such licenses granted—1827, ch. 117, sec. 6, . . . . .	932
To lay before the grand jury of his court, on the first day of their attendance, the list returned to him by the sheriff of persons who ought to have licenses, and also a list of licenses granted—1827, ch. 117, sec. 6, . . . . .	932
Violations of the law regulating the issuing of, punishable by fine and imprisonment—1827, ch. 117, sec. 9,† . . . . .	933
Pedlars to obtain licenses as heretofore, regulated by law—1827, ch. 117, sec 10, . . . . .	933
Clerks' fees for issuing, 50 cents—1827, ch. 117, sec. 11, . . . . .	933
To authorize sales till 1st May, 1828—1827, ch. 117, sec. 12, . . . . .	933
Importers of merchandise, who do not break packages, &c. exempted from the law respecting licenses—1827, ch. 117, sec. 13, . . . . .	934
An additional supplement repealing so much of the seventh section as imposes a fine for violation—1830, ch. 184, p. 1006; 1831, ch. 298, . . . . .	1046
The act of 1827, ch. 117, regulating the issuing of licenses to traders, ordinary keepers, and others, is not to apply to persons who do not buy or sell with a view to profit in the regular prosecution of some trade or business. Other regulations prescribed—1828, ch. 85, . . . . .	951
Persons who sell only cakes, bread, beer, cider, apples, &c. or other domestic fruit, need not obtain a license—1828, ch. 85, . . . . .	952
May be granted for the purpose of selling spirituous liquors at fisheries, horse-races and militia musters—1828, ch. 95, . . . . .	953
List of licenses to be furnished to the grand jury—1828, ch. 85, sec. 4, . . . . .	952

* These taxes are all modified by 1831, ch. 262, and by 1832, ch. 273.

† See 1832, ch. 273.