

cident to the sale or drawing, unless authorized to raise a specified sum clear of expenses. Other regulations on this subject—1828, ch. 129, sec. 3,	955
Lotteries are not to be united, unless approved of by the commissioners—1828, ch. 129, sec. 4,	955
No person to sell, &c. or to notify for sale, any ticket in any lottery, nor to set up or keep any office for selling, notifying, &c. any ticket in any lottery, unless the lottery be granted by this state, and approved by the lottery commissioners, or proposed by them on behalf of the state, persons so offending to be fined, &c.—1828, ch. 129, sec. 5,	957
No person to sell, or to notify, &c. any lottery ticket, (except the lottery commissioners,) or to keep any office for selling or notifying any ticket in any lottery granted by this state, &c. unless such person shall have first obtained a license for that purpose—persons so offending to be fined, &c.—1828, ch. 129, sec. 6,	957
Licenses to sell, notify, &c. lottery tickets, &c. in lotteries granted by this state, &c. to be issued by the clerk of Baltimore city court, at the rate of $200 per annum. If issued elsewhere at the rate of $50 per annum. The clerk entitled to $2 for issuing every license. Before such license is issued, bond to be given to the state—1828, ch. 129, sec. 7,*	958
Penalty on any person offering to sell any ticket in any lottery, other than such as have been granted by the state, and approved, &c. or shall be aiding, &c.—1828, ch. 129, sec. 8,	960
Also, on persons offering to sell any ticket in any lottery authorized by this state, &c. or shall be aiding, &c. unless he has obtained a license for that purpose—1828, ch. 129, sec. 9,	960
Persons obtaining such license, offending, &c. his license to be null and void—1828, ch. 129, sec. 10,	960
Regulations respecting trials relative to the sale of lottery tickets—1828, ch. 129, sec. 11,	961
Penalty for offering for sale any articles, money, goods, lands, &c. to be determined by lot, chance, or the drawing of any lottery, or for selling, &c. any policy, &c. but not to affect licensed venders of lottery tickets—1828, ch. 129, sec. 12,	961
Punishment for altering or forging any lottery ticket, &c.—1828, ch. 129, sec. 13,	962
Courts to construe this act largely, and strongly against offenders—1828, ch. 129, sec. 14,	962
On the suggestion of the lottery commissioners, &c. proceedings in any prosecution may be transferred to any adjoining county court for trial—1828, ch. 129, sec. 15,	963
There shall be no prosecution for violations of the former lottery laws, if any such proceedings are now depending, they are to be dismissed, &c.—1828, ch. 129, sec. 16,	964
The governor shall not remit any part which the informer is entitled to—1838, ch. 128, sec. 17,	964

* See 1831, ch. 79.