

REDEMPTIONERS.

The governor and council to appoint, in every port of entry, some person skilled in the German and English languages, as registers of deeds of apprenticeship or servitude of German or Swiss emigrants—1817, ch. 226, sec. 1,	684
The register (after taking the oath prescribed,) to open an office, and draw up and see to the due execution of writings, regulating the apprenticeship of every German and Swiss redemptioner—1817, ch. 226, sec. 2,	684
No indenture to be of any avail, unless drawn up or approved by said register—1817, ch. 226, sec. 2,	684
Duty of the register to transmit the indenture when executed, to the clerk of the county court to be recorded—1817, ch. 226, sec. 3,	685
To keep an account of the name, sex, age, time of apprenticeship or servitude, whence came, and to whom bound, and transmit it for record—1817, ch. 226, sec. 3,	685
Minors under twenty-one years not to be indented, except by their parents or next of kin, and in default of relatives, by the direction of the orphans courts—1817, ch. 226, sec. 4,	685
The indentures to covenant to give to minors annually at least two months schooling—1817, ch. 226, sec. 5,	685
No emigrant to be bound to serve more than four years, except males under seventeen, and females under fourteen, to serve respectively till twenty-one and eighteen—1817, ch. 226, sec. 6,	685
German or Swiss emigrant not to be detained on board longer than thirty days, and to receive from the master, &c. sufficient provision without an increase of the term, or any charge—1817, ch. 226, sec. 7,	685
Directions for their being brought on shore, &c. in case of longer detention, sickness, ill-treatment, &c. and for the interference of the county court or a judge on the information of the register—1817, ch. 226, sec. 8,	685
Children not answerable for the freight or passage money of their parents, dead or alive, nor parents for deceased children, nor a husband for his deceased wife, nor a wife for her deceased husband—1817, ch. 226, sec. 9,	686
Masters of vessels, in case of the death of such emigrants, to give to the register, within ten days after his arrival, an inventory under oath of all the property of such emigrants, under a penalty of $200, to be recovered as other fines—1817, ch. 226, sec. 10,	686
The property to be disposed of by the register for payment of the passage, and to the heirs as therein provided—1817, ch. 226, sec. 10,	686
Fees and allowance to the register—1817, ch. 226, sec. 11,	686
The proceeds of sales uncalled for during three years after publication, to be paid by the register to the German society—1817, ch. 226, sec. 11,	686