

PUBLIC GENERAL LAW.

2793

Page.

Constables on serving ca. sa. bound to accept payment—1807, ch. 115,	551
Plaintiffs to have the same remedy against them, as on writs of fieri facias—1807, ch. 115,	551
Cost allowed on serving warrants in criminal prosecutions, and in cases of acquittal, to be levied on the county, &c.—1809, ch. 169,	593
Constables' fees for summoning a jury of inquest—1816, ch. 142,	643
Their fees regulated—1820, ch. 164, sec. 1,	735
Penalty for receiving greater fees—1820, ch. 164, sec. 3,	736
Remedy provided against constables refusing to pay over moneys col- lected by them to the parties entitled—1820, ch. 185,	741
Their poundage fees on executions regulated—1821, ch. 162,	769
Tenant to be liable to the landlord for costs of distress made by con- stables—1821, ch. 162,	769
Constables' bonds to be proved by the oaths of the subscribing wit- nesses before they are received by the levy court—1821, ch. 175,	769
Their fees for the execution of criminal business to be levied on the respective counties—1822, ch. 143,	784
In cases of vacancy, may be appointed by the levy courts at their next meetings, in the same manner as they may appoint them at their meetings to lay the county assessment—1824, ch. 10, sec. 1,	801
When appointed by magistrates during the recess of the court, the county clerks to receive and approve their bonds—1824, ch. 10, sec. 2,	802
Constables so appointed to serve until the meeting of the levy courts— 1824, ch. 10, sec. 3,	802
Hereafter to be appointed for election districts instead of hundreds as heretofore—1824, ch. 140, sec. 1,	811
Their powers defined—1824, ch. 140, sec. 2,	811
No person to be appointed as constable unless he shall give bond, ap- proved according to law—1824, ch. 140, sec. 3,	811
Oath prescribed—1824, ch. 140, sec. 4,	812
Appointments under this act to be made on the first Monday in April next—1824, ch. 140, sec. 5,	812
Constables' fees in cases of distress for rent—1824, ch. 140, sec. 6,	812
Former acts repealed—1824, ch. 140, sec. 7,	812
To serve warrants of distress when required, within the limits of the county—1825, ch. 21, sec. 1,	823
To receive the same compensation as sheriffs are authorized to receive for similar services—1825, ch. 21, sec. 1,	823
Responsibility of constables, &c. on their bonds to be co-extensive with the authority here given—1825, ch. 21, sec. 2,	823
Where they are defaulted for any sum of money, not exceeding $50, or have collected such money, and refuse or neglect to pay it over, a warrant may issue upon the bond of said constable against him- self and his securities, and judgment be rendered thereon—1825, ch. 198, sec. 1,	857
Persons from whom money may be withheld by any constable, or in whose case a default has been entered, may pursue the remedy di-	